

A large, empty rectangular area representing the main workspace for the PCB layout. It is bounded by a grid of letters A-D on the left and right sides, and numbers 1-6 on the top and bottom sides. The area is currently blank, with no components or traces visible.